

Matt Cella Bio

PGA of Canada Class A Professional
BC Provincial Coach
Coaching Developing Competitors Certified
TPI Junior Level 2 Certified
Simon Fraser University Assistant Coach

As Provincial Coach with the British Columbia Golf Association for the past 5 years, Matt has led the Girls Team to a win in the North Pacific Team Matches back to back years, coached the 2016 Boys Team to take 2nd place at the Canadian Junior Championships and coached Team BC to team Silver medals at the 2017 Canada Summer Games.

In his private coaching Matt has worked with many of the best juniors in BC and is coach to the current BC Junior Girls Champion. As part of the coaching team at Simon Fraser University, Matt has helped both Men's and Women's Team gain their highest ever NCAA rankings.

Matt incorporates a holistic approach to his coaching, understanding that everyone is different in how they learn and absorb information. He looks at all factors that can influence performance and uses his friendly, compassionate nature to get the best out of his players.